

Customer Story

Method Aesthetics

Method Aesthetics is an aesthetic medicine clinic offering some of the best preventive wellness services to their clients. Latest technology is used to design anti-ageing treatment methods suited to each client's requirements.

A team of professionals having expertise in various aspects of aesthetic medicine work with the patient through each step of their treatment. Kybella, Botox fillers, Hydrafacial are some of the services offered at Method Aesthetics. They also offer a range of high end skin care products prepared using the choicest of ingredients that have a therapeutic effect over the skin. Method Aesthetics offers anti-ageing treatment for men as well as women.

Challenge

Katie Mann, the owner of Method Aesthetics contacted Growth99 in October 2020 for increasing the online presence of her venture. She wanted the same popularity for Method Aesthetics on web searches that she had via Instagram. Katie was hoping that Growth99 would create a website for her that would bring more traction for her website and increase her online bookings.

Katie wanted Growth99 for reputation management and to implement SEO techniques for increasing the popularity of Method Aesthetics.

Solution

Growth99 designed an aesthetically pleasing website for Method Aesthetics that was user friendly. Appropriate use of SEO helped to increase the rankings of Method Aesthetics during online searches. Growth99 created quality word content for Method Aesthetics and added this on their website on monthly basis. This attracted more users who got adequate information about the services offered at Method Aesthetics.

Method Aesthetics now enjoys more positive client reviews than ever. They have managed to increase their client base due to a better web presence.
